

Room: 983226*FINISHDashboardManage Quizzes

Live Results

0

Refresh

Quick Question

Post your thoughts & questions as you listen to today's TTTC discussion. Please keep it on point. :)

START VOTESHOW NAMES*37 answers https://m.youtube.com/channel/UCrPtD-d_JQJVJ8xYXf-xLIQ	Remove harirah121 thats so deep	Remove 👏	Remove

i love that point...spirit over body...	Remove wv what does that even mean	Remove were talking body, xD	Remove thanks m'8	Remove truu wv	Remove fiction - stories - keep people alive	Remove Linda represents mortality, at least that's my opinion	Remove i agree abt it being a strong ending. what does linda represent?	Remove ☐☐☐	Remove
quoted wv	Remove we are all aware now, but it wasnt really lolked at the	Remove same way as it is today when it first happend..PTSD was overlooked (person 4 down)

"For twenty years this field had embodied all the waste that was Vietnam, all the vulgarity and horror" 176	Remove At the end he says "All that's finished", what is he referring to?	Remove what would your reaction to this be if you were in kathleens place?	Remove i think that we're all aware of how Vietnam went so i don't think it was "blown over" 🤔	Remove O'Brien had people to return to. Social interaction and writing helped him survive.	Remove vv	Remove boy scouts can be brutal	Remove
vv*	Remove
what does that mean v	Remove how does the story change when we find out bowker kills himself?	Remove since if he had gotten the star he wouldve saved kiowa	Remove i think its not about the silver star and more about not saving kiowa	Remove Why was Max's drowning significant? why is it mentioned in this chapter	Remove thanks m'att	Remove whatpage is that	Remove anything significant about the lake?	Remove what do you think his dads reaction wouldve been if he got the silver star?	Remove Bowker even asks O'Brien to speak for him.	Remove good pt abt the dif between o'brien and bowker	Remove why imaginary conversations?	Remove do you think Norman sees his "hometown" as a foreign place because of his time in the war?	Remove speaking if courage, field trip, the lives of the dead, right?	Remove which chapter was your favorite	Remove

ANOTHER QUESTION

Socrative Student Response by MasteryConnect